Endeavour Foundation Business Excellence and Impact Awards

Bold
Not bold

Endeavour Foundation wrote this document.

When you see the word 'we' or 'us' it means Endeavour Foundation.

We have written some words in bold. We will explain what these words mean.

You can ask for help to read this document with someone you trust.

You can ask a friend, family member, or a support person to help you.

Every day, over 1,700 people with disability work at Endeavour Foundation.

They do great work and help the Australian workforce.

There are also businesses that give jobs to people with disability.

We want to celebrate their hard work.

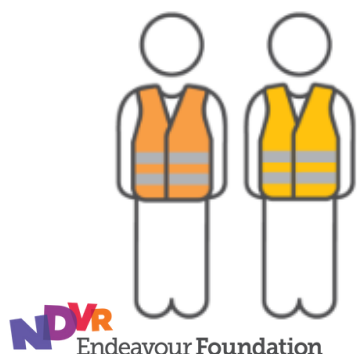

You can nominate them for an award.

Nominate means we want you to tell us who you think should get an award.

The awards

There are 5 awards that you can nominate for

1. Results that shine award

This award is for a social enterprise that does great work every day.

They also help people learn new skills.

2. CBC Group Partnership excellence award

This award is for a business that works closely with Endeavour Foundation.

They help people with disability find good jobs.

3. Advocacy in action award

Advocacy means standing up for the rights of people with disability.

This award is for a person who helps more people understand disability.

They may do this through media like TV, radio, or social media

4. Charity champion award

This award is for an organisation that gives money or help to Endeavour Foundation.

They support our goals and work.

5. Community leadership award

This award is for an organisation that helps in many ways.

They support people with disability and the whole community.

We have a website where you can go to get more information about how to nominate for each award.

The judges

When everyone has nominated who they think should win, judges will decide who the winner will be.

We have five judges who will decide.

Avril is a mum to Heather, has supported Endeavour Foundation for over 10 years, raising $400,000 with husband Jimmy through the Great Endeavour Rally.

Jane is Receptionist and Administration Officer at Endeavour Foundation and is looking forward to being part of the judging panel because she loves learning about other people.

Maddie is a supported independent worker through Endeavour Foundation's Support Centre hosted employment program. She is looking forward to being on the panel because it's something new and exciting to get involved with.

Long-time Endeavour supporter Warren Peppin from smartMonday shares his passion for retirement planning, regularly visiting sites to run helpful info sessions for staff and employees.

Wendy Zernike joined Endeavour's Board in April 2024. Her focus on improvement, performance, and community fits perfectly with Endeavour's Business Excellence and Impact Awards.

Zoe Harrison, People and Culture Manager at Rydges South Bank, saw Endeavour's inclusive social enterprises firsthand during her team's visit to Geebung in April. She is excited to be a judge at the awards.

The judges have a big job to do and we know they will make good choices.

The award event

We are having a special event, a lunch, to say thank you.

At this event we will give out the awards to the winners.

The event will happen on Thursday 16 October.

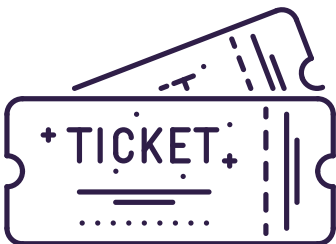

It will happen from 11.30am until 3.00pm

The event will be at Rydges Hotel South Bank.

There will be lots of people celebrating at the event and you are welcome to join us,

You will need some help to buy tickets to come along.
